

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT

Environmental Impact Assessments (EIA) may be required elements for obtain planning consent for specified development projects. Where required, the planning authority needs to be satisfied that all environmental issues that may affect the site have been considered, potential impacts appropriately assessed, and where necessary, adequate mitigation provided.

Specific services provided include:-

- Project scoping and preparation of scoping documents
- Preparation of the EIA and Environmental Statements (ES)
- Execution of technical components of the ES including:
 - Ecological surveys and impact assessment
 - Noise survey and impact assessments
 - Air quality surveys and impact assessment
 - Traffic surveys
 - Visual impact assessment
 - Impacts to geology, hydrogeology, and surface water
- Discharge of Planning Environmental Conditions
- Construction Phase Site Environmental Management Plans and Monitoring including:
 - Air Quality
 - Noise
 - Vibration
 - Water releases

Harrison Environmental Consulting has provided EIA services for numerous development projects in the UK across a diverse range of industries including:-

- Retail, commercial, residential developments
- Windfarms
- Recovered paper processing
- Waste to power
- Biodiesel manufacturing plant
- Intensive poultry farming

