

ENVIRONMENTAL PERMITTING & AUDITING

harrisonenvironmental
CONSULTING

DATA SHEET

Compliance with applicable environmental regulations is essential to minimise business risks and maximize environmental performance. Harrison Environmental Consulting has been providing environmental regulatory compliance and permitting services for various industries in the UK.

In particular, we have been extensively involved in Integrated Pollution Prevention and Control (IPPC) applications, Waste Management Licensing, Environmental Due Diligence Audits and other permitting activities for industrial sectors including: -

- Chemical industry
- Biofuel production
- Recovered Paper Processing
- Vegetable Processing
- Waste Management and Recycling
- Pig and Poultry Processing
- Intensive farming

The specific services offered by the Harrison Group include: -

- Preparation of permit applications
- Assessment of emissions and impacts
- Negotiation with the regulators
- Waste minimisation programmes
- Water efficiency audits
- Energy efficiency audits
- Air Quality emissions inventory
- Noise assessments
- Permit related improvement programmes
- Interpretation and application of EHS legislation
- Audits for legal compliance, due diligence and waste, Duty of Care

The Harrison Group is also able to offer additional related services. These include: -

- Management Systems (combined EHS system; ISO14001, EMAS)
- Management and Staff Training in practical implementation of EHS systems
- Land condition assessments
- Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA)

